PARTS AND ILLUSTRATION CATALOG

IMPORTANT

Passenger vehicles for 1976 thru 1982 contain many parts dimensioned in the metric system. These parts are very close in dimension to familiar customary measurements in the inch system. It is important that during any vehicle maintenance procedure, replacement fasteners have the same measurements as those removed, whether metric or customary. Mismatched or incorrect fasteners can result in vehicle damage or malfunction, or possibly personal injury.

Fastener sizes denoted on illustrations may not reflect metric dimensions. However, since the same vehicle may be built with metric or customary fasteners, care should be exercised in selecting replacement part equivalent to the original fasteners in dimensions, strength and pitch of thread. Both metric and customary fasteners required for replacement are listed in the Warehousing and Distribution Division Standard Parts Catalog.

A special Warehousing and Distribution Division label, saying "Metric Fasteners Required" in red letters, will be used to identify service parts which require metric fasteners but replace parts which originally used inch fasteners. This label will enable dealers and over-the-counter customers to quickly recognize parts which have changed to metric fasteners.

INTRODUCTION

GM3

This Parts Catalog has been compiled for the purpose of locating, identifying, and ordering replacement parts. All data and specifications contained in this publication are based on the latest product information available at the time of printing. Warehousing and Distribution Division reserves the right to make changes at any time without notice in data, price, specifications, materials, material, and model. The "List Prices" shown are suggested prices only for sales to consumers.

Replacement parts are listed in this catalog under 16 major groups, as shown on the content page. Individual parts are assigned a Prime Group number, the first numeral of the group identifies the main unit it is affiliated with, and following the decimal is the Sub-Group number under which all parts of the same name and function are listed. For example, Group 0.519 Camshaft. The "0" denotes that it is an Engine Part, "519" the sub-group where all Engine Camshafts are listed. Related parts may also be found in the same group. Within each group, parts are listed by model year, vehicle series, part number, number used per vehicle or R.H.-L.H. designation, suggested list price, part name and description.

Parts may be used in different locations on the car requiring the listing of the part number in more than one group. When this "Cross Referencing" occurs, the prime group is shown in brackets i.e. (1.850) in the description column.

To locate a listing for a part, determine the model vehicle and refer to the group number identifying it, which may be determined by using any of the following methods.

- A. When the name of the part is known, consult the ALPHABETICAL INDEX, which lists parts by noun name and Group Number where part is listed.
- B. Reference may be made to the ILLUSTRATION CATALOG, where Group Numbers, noun names or part numbers are shown.
- C. When a part number is known and model application or a similar part is required, consult the DEALER PRICE SCHEDULE for the Group Number to locate the part in the Parts Catalog.

Parts having application or used with optional equipment are identified by Option Number or abbreviation of option. Familiarity with Option Numbers will assist in determining correct part required.

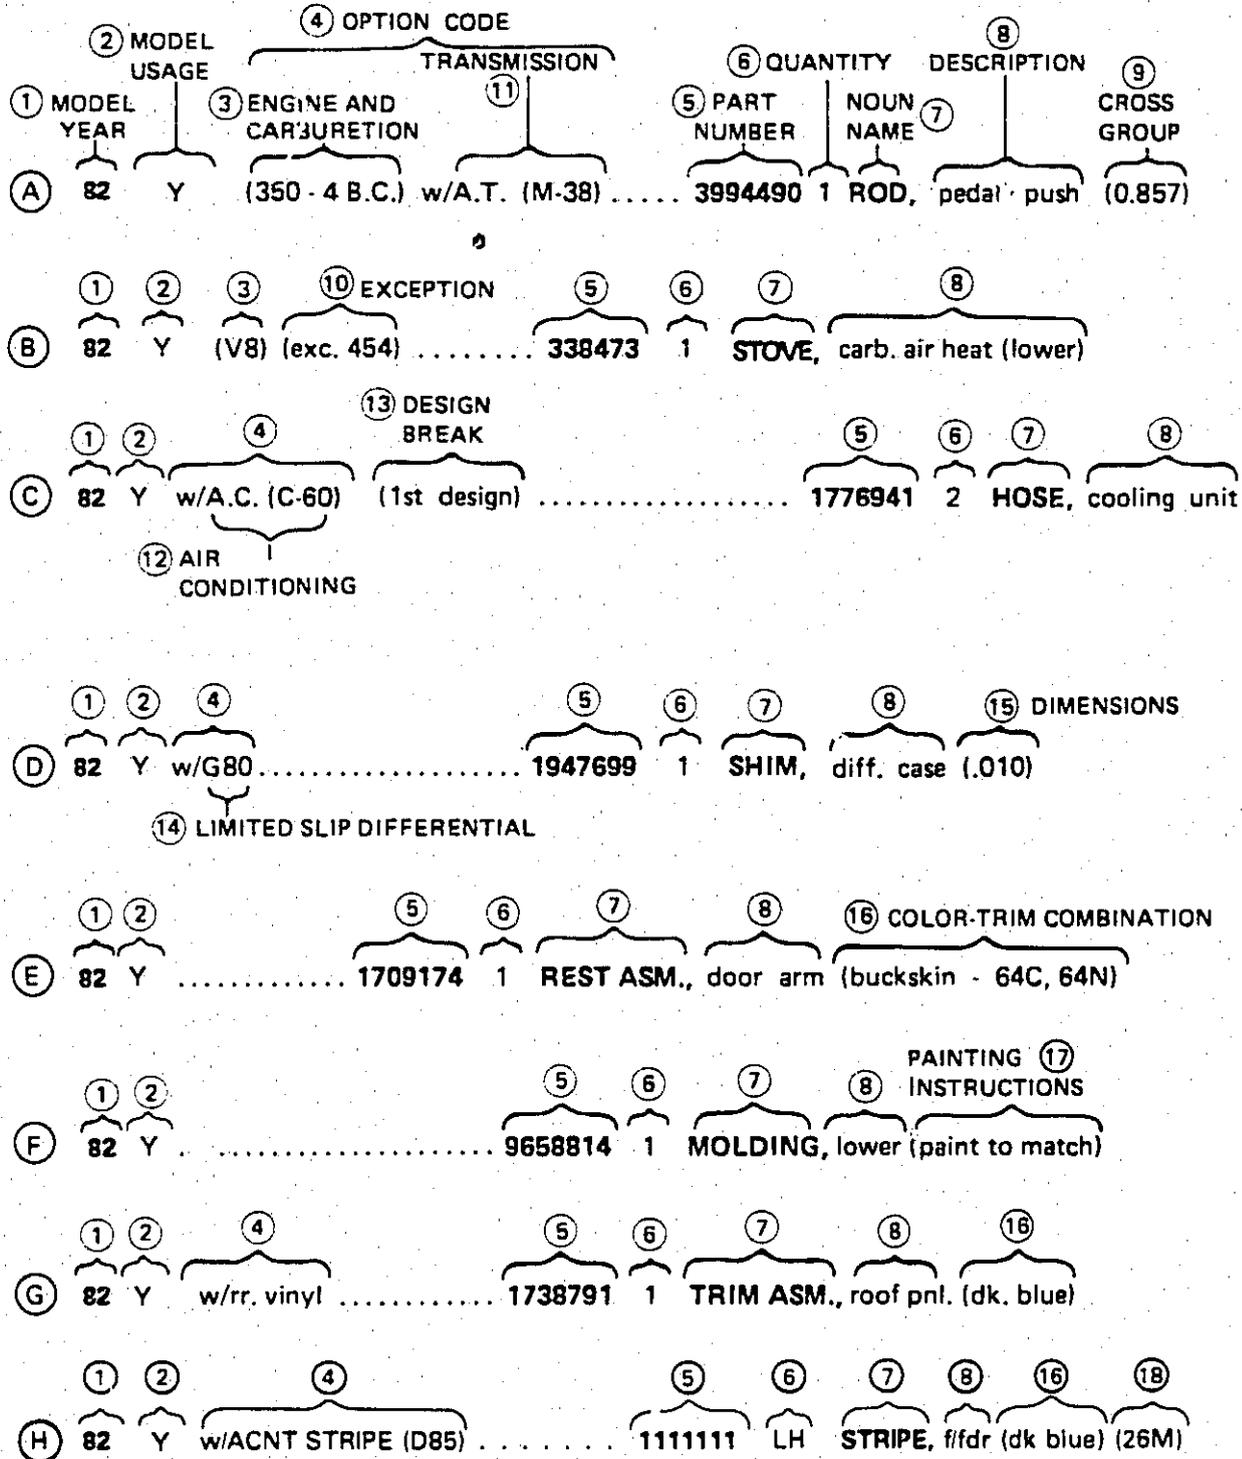

Complete identification for models and options listed in this catalog will be found preceding the alphabetical index.

Service part numbers are assigned to individual parts that make up an assembly used in the production of models. Certain items may not be listed, such as short tubing parts or fuel lines that can be made up by dealers from bulk material or attaching parts may be included in packages with the major assembly and not listed separately.

Right Hand and Left Hand parts are so designated from the driver's position when seated in the car.

INTRODUCTION

This ILLUSTRATION CATALOG has been compiled to assist in the location and identification of service parts.

The illustrations herein may not always show the exact part required, however, for identification purposes the group number or noun name can be readily located from a view covering a typical illustration.

The layout of the information contained in this publication is such that the illustrations can be removed for combining with the Parts Listing Catalog Sections by groups. The "single" catalog concept can be maintained using this system, or the separate Illustration Catalog and Parts Listings Catalogs can be used.

During each calendar year complete reprints of the catalog are published as part of the Catalog Revision Service. New or revised illustrations are mailed to dealers subscribing to the revision service as they are scheduled.

All specifications and illustrations contained in this publication are based on the latest product information available at the time of printing. Warehousing and Distribution Division reserves the right to make changes at any time without notice in data, specifications, material and models.

Due to Engineering and or part number changes, all part number application herein should be verified by referring to the Parts Catalog.
